If Tui writes more books, it would be likely that she'd make them from the POV of Auklet, Cliff, one of the NightWing dragonets in the RainWing wingery, and a MudWing (Umber?), and maybe a RainWing. Thoughts?

Maybe Auklet, Cliff, Lynx (because Tui wanted to explore her more), a MudWing, and a RainWing. NO MORE NIGHTWING POVS! And as much Aukliff as possible.

Oh, hey, Hydrafalling2, you're a writer, artist, grammar freak, FanWing, and Aukliff shipper too? Awesome!

And whatever happens, I don't want it to be about the children of the original/second series dragonets. I hate when the first series/movie starts out as characters being able to be heroes regardless of ancestry and then the sequel is like "everyone important must be related to the original protagonists!" Since I've seen a lot of suggestions like that in other posts. It should be more like the second series, where you can have maybe one of them (like Turtle) related to the original protagonists but not all of them. Not to mention that with Turtle it makes sense because it has already been established that there are animus dragons in Tsunami's family and that she presumably had a bunch of brothers who might have those powers, but it wouldn't make sense in most situtions.

Books 11-15

dragonclaws2456

Probably not another NightWing... we've had two. And two SandWings, two SeaWings, ONE SkyWing (next may be Cliff), ONE MudWing (Umber? Sora?), ONE RainWing (PLEASE KINKAJOU), ONE IceWing (Lynx?),

So a SkyWing, RainWing, IceWing, MudWing, and probably a SeaWing.

SeaWing- Auklet
IceWing- Lynx
SkyWing- Cliff
MudWing- Umber/Sora
RainWing- Kinkajou? hopes Or Tamarin? That would be kind of cool...

Not Auklet, though, because it would be redundant to have the three SeaWing POVs all be siblings. Maybe Cliff, Lynx, MudWing, RainWing, and SandWing or non-royal SeaWing? Though I would actually look forward to a series that skips backward to the past. Everything they set up for the second series as conflict makes perfect sense, as does how there is still some conflict and resentment between the tribes after the war because that never just magically goes away, but after this series it feels like, unless something happens in this series that i am not aware of, that the dragonets have improved the world a lot and it might be more interesting to go backward to hundreds of years ago or even to the scorching.

Me and my friends REALLLLLY want the following scenario to happen, but it probably won't.

So, a lot of time in the future, Ruby dies peacefully in her sleep. She had no dragonets except for Cliff. Cliff is appointed the first King of the SkyWings.

But there is more.

Anemone, having gone mad and having to have been killed by Turtle, is out of the way. Tsunami is busy at JMA. Auklet reluctantly takes the throne after Coral dies in battle with a traitorous SeaWing.

Auklet and Cliff had met at JMA. They kind of fell in love. They got... um, married? after Auklet became Queen of the SeaWings and Cliff became King of the SkyWings. It's the first true togetherishness and acceptance of two tribes together-- Aukliff merges the two tribes, sort of. They have dragonets, two of them, Petrel and (some other name I can't remember). Those two go to JMA, and the legacy continues.

I think that the books might be about the Dragonets of Destiny or the Jade Mountain dragonet's children.

Book 11: Ripnami dragonet
Book 12: Starflight's daughter. (Starspeaker or Sunnyflight)
Book 13: One of the Jade Mountain Dragonet's children. (Possibly Winterwatcher, Qibliwatcher, Turtlejou, or something else.)
Book 14: Glorybringer dragonet. (Firefly...?)
Book 15: Unrelated to the main characters dragon/dragonet. (Possibly Cliff) Or another Winterwatcher/Qibliwatcher/Turtlejou/Other dragonet.

I like that theory but wouldn't it be interesting if fighting starts to break out because of the tribes merging? Some of the other tribes do not want the tribes to be united. Maybe the main characters (whoever they may be) are trying incredibly hard to prevent another war from breaking out. You don't have to like my idea but this is just what I think would happen.

i fell like JMA should be like the begining of the book and its a few years later.
but then again at the end of the tenth book , yess i read it in 5 hours , the first visitor from the lost comtenet arives , and Jearbo intreduces them i feel as though it is the biggest cliff hagger for the next book.

Also my favorite character at the time is Cliff or Quibli!

It'll Probably be about the lost continent and all of the other tribes. i dont know when though. maybe it will be from the perspective of peacemaker A.K.A darkstalker's new dragonet form. It may even be about the scorching. Hopefully Glorybringer's dragonet, Cleril's dragonet and Quibliwatcher or Winterwatcher. I am also waiting for Ripnami's dragonet.
